Wise Men Still Seek Him

By Bonita Thigpen

I know that this is not an original statement and I cannot claim it as my own. I also realize that there are a lot of people who have forgotten to seek the Savior who came down to earth from His throne in Heaven to live among mortal men, to feel pain, to suffer loss, to know hunger, to sweat, to have chills, to know persecution, to be rejected, to face humiliation, and to even have to die. All of these things could have been avoided if He had stayed in Heaven. Yet He chose to make the sacrifice so that man would be able one day to spend eternity in that wonderful place with the Heavenly Father. Catch the word, chose. He had a choice. He loved us that much.

So, now you can understand why I say wise men still seek Him.

Why would anyone want to carelessly live life without His help here knowing He has experienced everything we will ever experience. He knows exactly what we need no matter what situation we may find ourselves in. There is nothing He can not handle. He is God. He is bigger than any problem, He is bigger than anything!

As we go through this Christmas Season, let's not get side tracked on the worldly side of the holidays. It is not Happy Holidays. It is Merry Christmas! Without Christ there would never have been a Christmas to start with. So as we open our gifts, let's open our hearts and remember it's His birthday, not ours.

Merry Christmas to all of you and may you find real peace and joy throughout the coming year.

No I am not one of the Reflectsons. No I do not travel with them every weekend on the bus. No I do not see everything that they have to do or put up with. But I have traveled with the group in times past when my sons were younger. I have even driven the bus for several years. I am married to Dale Thigpen and have been for 43 years, so I do know a little bit about the sacrifices that are made by each one of these dedicated members.

I recall the many times when they were sick or injured and they climbed on the bus anyway and continued on their way to minister the word of God in song.

I also remember times of great sadness and mourning when family members had died and they continued on the journey to spread the good news of Jesus Christ.

Many of us would never have even considered continuing on the road as these faithful few have done. They are not super heroes but they are loyal to their calling to carry the Gospel to the world. They know that the hour is growing late and there are so many lost and dying souls who need to hear this message.

Maybe you think I am bragging. Maybe you think I am not the one who should say these things. I just thought you ought to know.
